TOKYO FOREIGN POLICY UNCHANGED

Nanking And Whitehall Watching

Tokyo, February 5.

The foreign policy of the new Government is unchanged. According to well-informed circles, it is stated that when the Diet reassembles, General Hayashi will reiterate Mr. Arita's foreign policy which he declared before the last Cabinet dissolved.—Reuter

Nanking, Feb. 5.

A Tokyo dispatch to the Central News Agency here stated that the Hayashi cabinet is drafting a statement on foreign policy today. The text will be made public over the week-end.

Official circles here show great interest as to the nature of the China policy of the new Japanese government. If Mr. Hiroshi Saito, the Japanese ambassador in Washington, were to become foreign minister, there would be a lull in Sino-Japanese relations, until the new foreign minister reaches Tokyo, it is believed here.

Chinese observers in Japanese politics pointed out that the exclusion of political parties in the new cabinet and its domination by military men are contrary to the constitution proclaimed during the Meiji era. For this reason Premier Sanjuro Hayashi is likely to meet with opposition by the political parties.—

Union News.

WHITEHALL WATCHING

London, Feb. 5.

It is understood that Whitehall is watching the political situation in Japan with close interest and its attitude towards the new Cabinet will be cautious, marked by a disposition to wait on events pending the Diet reassembling.

The fact that there are no party men in the Cabinet has not escaped attention.—

KAWAGOE FOR NANKING

Shanghai, Feb. 5.

The Japanese Embassy has announced that Mr. Kawagoe, Ambassador to China, will go to Nanking to-morrow for a prolonged stay.—

Japanese Prince For Coronation

Prince Yasuhito Chichibu, the younger brother of the Emperor of Japan, will represent the Mikado at the Coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth.

It was learned from the Japanese Consulate-General that Prince Chichibu will travel with his wife and will be accompanied by a large delegation of Japanese officials. The party are travelling via Canada where a special train will await them on their arrival to carry them across the Dominion territory.

Prince Chichibu will be treated as a State guest of the Canadian Government who are planning several receptions in his honour.

After the Coronation on May 12, Prince Chichibu will probably tour Europe, and will perhaps return to his home via Suez.

The Japanese Prince was educated at Magdalen College, Oxford, which he left hurriedly before completing his education to attend the death-bed of his father, the late Emperor Taisho. However, the Emperor died before his son could reach Tokyo.

Princess Chichibu was born in London where her father, Count Matsudaira, was Secretary to the Japanese Embassy.

Prince Chichibu is to represent his brother, the Emperor of Japan, at the Coronation. Prince and Princess Chichibu (pictured above) will travel by way of Canada.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR BREAKS COURT CUSTOM

Greets King With Nazi Salute—And "Heil Hitler!"

INCIDENT DURING QUEEN VICTORIA'S REIGN RECALLED

London, February 5.

Comment has been raised by the fact that Herr von Ribbentrop, the German Ambassador, in presenting his credentials at Buckingham Palace yesterday, instead of the usual bow to His Majesty, clicked his heels and thrust out his arm in the approved Nazi salute, exclaiming "Heil Hitler!" The King was impassive and made no sign of surprise.

It is recalled that an Oriental envoy once, in presenting his credentials to Queen Victoria, knocked his head twice on the floor, but authorities on Court etiquette do not recall a precedent in recent years such as Herr von Ribbentrop's salutation.

The importation of a hundred and forty five German workmen to reconstruct and enlarge the German Embassy, where the reception room will be made capable of accommodating a thousand guests, has given rise to questions in the House of Commons.

Mr. John Simon, the Home Secretary, replied that the workmen have been coming in batches since November and some have already returned to Germany. He had ascertained from the German Embassy that very few more were required and the work was nearly completed.

Labour members put a number of questions and pressed for information as to what rates the Germans were paid and why British workmen were not employed.—

Book Banned

Action By Nanking Government

Nanking, Feb. 5.

It having been alleged that a book published and sold by book-sellers under the name, "History of the Ching (Manchu) Dynasty," contains numerous false and misleading statements, the Nanking Central Government has issued an order strictly prohibiting its sale.

All first parts of the book, which were published in the 15th year of the Chinese Republic, are to be seized and confiscated, and their future publication and sale, prohibited.—

Shanghai Warning!

H. K. Victim

The funeral of M. Pierre Gaube, who died on Thursday a victim of small pox, took place at the Roman Catholic Cemetery, Happy Valley, yesterday afternoon, the Rev. Father B. Pelenga officiating at the Chapel service and graveside.

His office was in Shanghai and he was in the habit of going for long hikes in the New Territories and is stated to have visited several villages in the course of his hikes.

Brilliant Concert By Seaforths

GALA PREMIERE AT KING'S

The gala premiere of the Warner-First National picture "Hearts Divided," starring Marion Davies, presented Hong Kong theatre-goers last night with an entertainment of a most unusual character when the bands of the 1st Battalion of the Seaforth Highlanders gave them something that they liked. To say that it was good is not enough, for the audience simply roared for more than they expected to hear.

Opening with the national anthem, "God Save the King," the Seaforths proceeded to play a march which they followed with a "heavy" classical piece. It was music literally fitting only for the ears of the privileged and the audience showed their appreciation at the end of each number by according it such hearty applause no other artists earned on the local stage. The band then concluded with a Scottish melody. Then, to the wall of pipes and swirl of tartans, the Seaforths

Canton, Feb. 5.

Mr. A. P. Blunt, the new British Consul-General in Canton, officially called on General Yu Han-mou, commander-in-chief of the Fourth Route Army, at 10 a.m. today to announce his assumption of office.

Half an hour later, Consul General Blunt visited Dr. Phillip K. C. Tyan, Special Delegate of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. At 11.15 Mr. Blunt called on Mayor Tseng Yang-fu. Cordiality prevailed throughout these visits.

The new Consul-General did not go to the Kwangtung Provincial Government, as its chairman, Lieut-General Huang Mu-sung, is still in Chungking hot spring. Mr. Blunt will pay a courtesy call on Chairman Huang upon his return to town.—

Chinese Athletics

Long-Distance Race Organised

In order to encourage physical fitness, and in the interests of athletics, the Hong Kong Chung Moo Athletic Association is organizing a long distance foot race for Chinese athletes of the Colony.

It will be remembered that some years ago, the Hong Kong Chung Nam Athletic Association organized a long distance race open to all Chinese of the Colony of Hong Kong, and it was a most successful event.

Since the winding up of the Chung Nam Athletic Association, long-distance racing ceased. Now the Chinese Athletic Associations of the Colony have decided to revive long-distance racing as a test of physical endurance, and the coming race is fixed for March 14, next in Kowloon.

Entries will be received from 8th up to 28th instant. It is understood that the race will be open to all Chinese of Hong Kong and Kowloon.

DYSENTERY SCOURGE REPORT

Analytical Survey Discloses Satisfactory Position

Every Precaution Now Being Taken

Similar in tone and fact to the report read by H.E. the Governor, Sir Andrew Caldecott, to the Legislative Council a detailed survey based upon scientific research concerning the dysentery scourge of last November has been compiled and promulgated.

In an appendix dealing with general conditions at the Dairy Farm the report concludes:—"Altogether it can be said that the milk is handled in a sanitary manner from the cow to the consumer and would be called grade "A" at home."

With regard to the water supply at the Dairy Farm it is disclosed that filtered water from the Government water works being unavailable the company has installed its own water works. The source of supply is the Pokfulam reservoir and a stream discharging into it. Raw water taken from this source is first filtered then chlorinated.

WATER SUPPLY

The report continues: "For years samples of this water have been submitted to the Government Bacteriologist for examination. During the investigation in connection with the epidemic special

Fuiliers' Hockey Game

In the United hockey league yesterday, the Royal Welch Fusiliers defeated the Hong Kong Police "B" by the odd goal in three at Shamshuipo. Kenaghan, of the Fusiliers scored the only goal in the first half. In the second half, Jagindar Singh, (left wing) of the Police equalized, but a few minutes before the game finished, Thomson, (centre-forward) of the Fusiliers scored the final goal.

Radicals Oppose Compromise

Loyang, Feb. 5. Several regimental and brigade commanders in General Chang Hsueh-liang's North-Eastern Army were killed by radical subordinates who oppose a compromise with Nanking, according to reports received here last night.

General Yang Hu-cheng, the insurgent Pacification Commissioner, is reported to have reached an agreement with the Central Authorities and will evacuate his troops from Sianfu some time today. Nanking troops under Gen. Ku Chu-tung will garrison the provincial capital and are moving westward from Weinan.

Barring further complications, the Shenai situation is likely to be peacefully settled, although what sort of deal Nanking makes with the Communists is not known.

Another important factor is whether the revolt within the rebel camp is serious enough to upset the compromise plan.—

Aquarium Society

An interesting talk was given by Mr. R. A. Pereira at the first ordinary meeting of the Hong Kong Aquarium Society last night at the Biology Department Building of the University.

Mr. Pereira showed his keen knowledge of fishes in a talk entitled "How to choose and buy specimens at the Chinese New Year Fair," as he has studied gold fish for some years and had at his disposal the latest Chinese, English and American literature on the subject. The next meeting of the Society will be held on Wednesday, March 10.

POCKET WEIGHT PLANE

A model aeroplane with an engine of one horse-power capacity has been constructed by the Soviet designer, M. Zurin.

According to the Tass Agency, the whole machinery—engine, engine frame, and propeller, with a supply of petrol sufficient for a 15-minute flight—weighs only four ounces. Zurin's engine has already been put through tests in an aircraft laboratory.

LORD DAWSON ON GEORGE V'S LAST DAYS

Service To Nation
Until The End

"Stayed The Course As Strength Ebbed"

Viscount Dawson of Penn. in his first broadcast recently, described King George V's struggle in the months before his death to carry on with his duties to the nation.

As Physician Extraordinary, Lord Dawson was with King George in his last hours. Last night he was appealing for "odd shillings and pence" for the National Memorial Fund.

"At this hour a year ago," he said, "the King's life was moving peacefully towards its close. No new illness had beset him. His strength, not his performance, had been declining for two years. His work had become a greater effort, but his interest and concern for his peoples showed no slackening."

"The gratitude and love which came to him at the Jubilee from all the countries of the Empire brought him help and happiness."

"In the autumn of 1935 the ebbing of his strength became pronounced; yet the King stayed the course. There was the usual broadcast on Christmas Day."

"During last January the King still thought and worked for the Empire, and on the last day of his life gathered up his strength to hold a meeting of the Privy Council. This was the sunset glow of his faithfulness and friendship amidst the lengthening shadows."

"His litany was 'Give me life so long as I can bring service and happiness, and then peace.' And with the end of his road came sleep, and never was the welcome to the good and faithful servant more nobly earned."

"The outstanding quality of King George's character was his fidelity—his was the strait and narrow way of duty and abiding love for his people—qualities which belong to our King and Queen who reign in his stead."

FUTURE OF COUNTRY'S YOUTH
"King George felt that the future of the country lay with youth; that youth for their own training needed well-equipped open spaces, where they could gain strength of lung and limb, strive in friendly rivalry, and learn how to play the game."

"How true was this vision—for as time goes on it will be found that the school which teaches health, the hospital which restores health, and the open space which makes for health are all parts of one great conception."

"This, the first anniversary of King George's farewell to his people, is the closing day of the national appeal. Please, then, in memory of a beloved King, give what you can."

It is expected that the result of the "odd shillings and pence" campaign will be announced within the next few days. Although, officially, the appeal closed recently, contributions will be arriving during the next two days and the task of collating and totalling receipts is great.

Sir George Broadbridge, Lord Mayor of London, under whose auspices the appeal was launched, said recently that before it began he received at the Mansion House 200 letters with contributions a day. Since the "tell your banker" appeal the number received had been 1,500 a day, all with contributions.

Interport Footballer From Shanghai

Among the passengers disembarking at Hong Kong last night from the M.M. liner "Aramis" from Shanghai was Mr. C. M. P. Remedios, who was formerly a member of the Recrelo football eleven. Mr. Remedios was accompanied by his wife and it is believed that it is his intention to make the Colony his permanent home.

The inclusion of Mr. Remedios in this year's Interport team raised considerable controversy in the Shanghai papers, a certain section of the community having agitated strongly that he should be selected for the intermediate line.

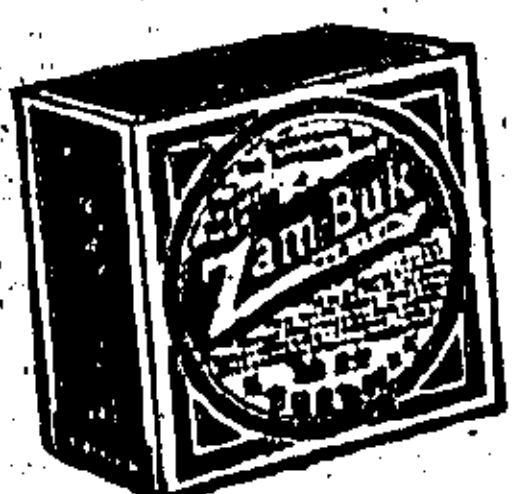

It is understood that Mr. Remedios will don the Recrelo colours shortly and perhaps participate in the combined Recrelo and St. Joseph's teams against a side comprising the Chinese players of Hong Kong, Shanghai and Canton.

THE CHURCH AND THE TRUTH

Mission Increasingly Hard

(BY SCRUTATOR)

It has been said that a people get the government they deserve; in a deeper sense it is true that they get the Church they are! For the real Church, as distinct from conventional conceptions, is the corporate expression of society's spiritual seeking and attainment.

The chief function of the Church is to unite soul with soul in a form of worship, which, if it is sincere, unites the Church to God. This is by no means an easy action; it demands a real spiritual achievement in the life of every individual who joins in it. In this sense it is true that we only get the Church we are. If the fellowship and worship of the Church tends to be abstract, perfunctory, or emotional, it is because the individual spiritual attainment contributing to the nature of the Church, is experientially unreal, or at the best, slight and sentimental.

The Church, like every other formulation of society, derives its reality and power primarily from the contributions and the purposiveness of the individuals composing it—if they are real, it is real; if they are sincere, it is powerful. The Church is society's expression of its knowledge of God. But this knowledge is not only immediate, it is also historic and it often happens that the individual's immediate knowledge of God becomes overlaid and hidden in the Church's historic theological formulae, and in the multiplication of ceremonies whose significance has long ceased to be vital. Thus it comes about occasionally that the individual's tenuous knowledge of God, which should issue in a brave acceptance of life is mazed into series of unintelligible confessions and nominal acceptances of historic doctrines, and does not issue, or at the best issues only in a partial acceptance of life.

REALITY IN LIFE

The fundamental truth that knowledge of God is the consummation of the true progress of the individual soul, and that the "Kingdom of heaven is within us" is very easily forgotten by the institution. The Church as such is always in danger of becoming a mere temporality and as such is meaningless and useless to men and women who seek reality in life and demand a similar reality in their religion. Thus it comes about, when the Church becomes institutionalized, that men and women rebel against it. Sometimes they rebel like St. Francis of Assisi, and remaining within the institution, they charge the whole body of it into a momentary reality; or like Jesus himself, they rebel, and initiate a new formulation altogether; or occasionally as at the Renaissance, articulate society rebels against the whole conception of a Church, as against an institution which by its very nature must sooner or later inevitably deny the right and the freedom of the individual to fulfill his own destiny.

TWOFOLD REALITY

A Christ-like rebellion, or a rebellion of society such as took place in Europe during the Renaissance period, are not so eternally shattering as may at first appear, for it must always be remembered that in the long story of human civilization which we know, a Church, as we understand it, is a comparatively modern invention which may quite easily, now or in the future, become completely inexpedient. But the truth which the Church seeks, and embodies however feebly, and expresses however haltingly, remains, and this is the truth which is rediscovered by the rebels. They rediscover it along a path which the Church, from which they have turned, has long since left, the path of loyalty to their own complete humanity, their own complete reality.

That reality is twofold; it is at once the individual's knowledge of himself, and of the universe in which he lives. The knowledge of the real harmony between these two things can be reached only through the individual's attainment of the knowledge of the unity and harmony in himself. This twofold knowledge is only attained by the truly religious in whom it never becomes abstract or in any way invalid. The truly religious does not merely assert a harmony, he reveals it in his life, just as Jesus demonstrated his knowledge that God is love by being ceaselessly loving. The truly religious gains this power of revelation through the completeness of their achieved humanity, through their realization that "Kingdom of heaven is within them" through their knowledge of the reality of God. In the truly religious, the mind is the faithful instrument of the heart, the one is the complement of the other, and neither tyrannises over the other. A truly religious personality is a properly balanced and complete personality in whom the harmony of the universe and the goodness of life are truly revealed.

TEACHING OF JESUS

It is because the modern world has forgotten the teaching of Jesus on the nature of the human soul; it is because the modern Church has largely allowed its knowledge of his teaching to be qualified and devitalized by the demands of the institution, that Christianity has ceased to be the compelling reality which it must be ere humanity can attain to a knowledge of the goodness of life which is necessary for its highest and purest development. There would have been a great good achieved if humanity had lived, could have lived, up to the knowledge and reality of its freedom which the Renaissance and the Reformation revealed, and had not run away from that knowledge by enthroning powers just as fallible as those it had overthrown. If every man had fought out the battle for himself, they would have understood and followed the saints and lovers who fought alone amidst a darkness which discredited and disbelieved the sincerity and the altruism of their rebellion.

We have reason to thank God that such men are increasing in number to-day, and the Church has reason to be grateful that some have apparently left her to wander alone, because sooner or later they will return with God in their hearts—in a very precise sense, possessing their souls—and they will revitalize the institution which for a lack of the knowledge of God is finding its mission increasingly difficult.

At the performance the Singers will be accompanied by full orchestra and organ, conducted by their Hon. Conductor, Mr. Lindsay A. Lafford, F.R.C.O., L.R.A.M. A.R.C.M., while Mr. Rupert Baldwin, A.T.C.L., will preside at the organ, which it is hoped, will have been sufficiently reconstructed by then to allow the instrument to be used.

The soloists need no introduction to Hong Kong audiences. They

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, tomorrow, February 7, will be: "Spirit."

The Golden Text will be: "We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord." (II Corinthians 3:18)

Among others, the following citations from the Bible will be read: "And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; and whosoever he taketh him, he tearth him; and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away; and I spake unto thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. And he asked of his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, of a child. And oft times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us. When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; inasmuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose." (Mark 17:18, 22, 25-27)

The Lesson Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus cast out evil spirits, or false beliefs. The Apostle Paul bade men have the Mind that was in the Christ. Jesus did his own work by the one Spirit. He said: 'My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.' Maintain the facts of Christian Science, that Spirit is God, and therefore cannot be sick; that what is termed matter cannot be sick; that all causation is Mind, acting through spiritual law. Then hold your ground with the unshaken understanding of Truth and Love, and you will win. When you silence the witness against your plea, you destroy the evidence, for the disease disappears. The evidence before the corporeal senses is not the Science of immortal man. Jesus demonstrated the inability of corporeality, as well as the infinite ability of Spirit, thus helping erring human sense to flee from its own convictions and seek safety in divine Science. Reason, rightly directed, serves to correct the errors of corporeal sense; but sin, sickness, and death will seem real (Even as the experiences of the sleeping dream seem real) until the Science of man's eternal harmony breaks their illusion with the unbroken reality of scientific being." #### Catholic News And Notes News From Manila

Hong Kong Catholics who have not been able to go to Manila for the Eucharistic Congress have in large numbers been following the events of the Congress on the wireless, and, thanks to the admirable way in which the Manila Broadcasting Service has co-operated, it has been possible to get a very good idea of all that has happened in Manila during this memorable week. It is quite evident that the success of the Congress exceeded all anticipations, both in the numbers that attended and in the enthusiasm that prevailed. Just before the Congress, it was feared that too much stress had been laid on the difficulty of finding accommodation and that as a consequence large numbers who had arranged to go to Manila from various parts of the Islands would cancel their arrangements, but this did not happen, and Manila has been crowded as it never was before in its history. The attendance at the chief ceremonies of the week has gone into hundreds of thousands, and it is anticipated that over half a million people will be present at the closing events tomorrow (Sunday) evening, when the great public procession will close with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 7.30 p.m. This will be followed by the broadcast address by His Holiness the Pope at 8 p.m. Listeners in Hong Kong should have no difficulty in hearing this broadcast, as it will be relayed from the Manila station (618.5 K.C.S., 485 metres).

THE PILGRIM SHIPS
During the coming week many ships bringing visitors from the Congress will pass through Hong Kong. Some of these paid a short visit on their way to Manila, and in spite of the bad weather that most of them encountered the visitors left with very good impressions of the Colony. They must have benefited the local shopkeepers to a considerable extent, for though there were few who could afford very large sums for curios, hardly any returned to the ships without some purchases, and when visitors run into thousands the sums they spend mount up rapidly. One indication of the extent of their purchases was the fact that a brisk business was done in the sale of bags and baskets of all kinds before the different ships sailed, for the passengers had no more room in their trunks or bags for their new purchases. Most of the visitors were very pleased with the churches shown them in the Hong Kong shops, and they compared conditions in the Colony very favourably with those prevailing in other places that they had visited. Some ships that did not pass through Hong Kong yet will bring hundreds of new visitors here this week.

VISITORS TO THE PILGRIM SHIPS
Many local people visited the pilgrim ships to welcome or bid farewell to friends, or friends by proxy, that were travelling on them, and illuminating comments were heard on all sides about the different lines in their attitude towards the Congress visitors. Though all the companies concerned did their part well and tried in every way to make conditions suitable for those who were going to Manila for a religious purpose rather than for a mere cruise, some did better than others, and the extra effort that some made will very probably be rewarded by extra traffic when the friends of the tourists make their next long sea journey. The permanent chapel on the "Tatsuma Maru" had many visitors, during that ship's stay in port, and it was noted that here, as other ports, flowers for this chapel were provided by Catholic members of the local Japanese community.

Among the travellers on this ship was the man who was responsible for all the Congress publicity in the United States during the past year. This was Mr. F.V. Williams, a well-known newspaper man, who hopes to see a good deal of China before his return to the United States. Mr. Williams has had many interesting experiences during his life as a journalist, one of the most interesting being his visit to Mexico a few years ago when he went specially to inquire into the truth of the allegations of religious persecution that were made against the Mexican government. A result of his investigations he was fully convinced that the charges were proved, and his articles on Mexico written on the foreman, show that dust and unto return were very widely discussed.

ASH WEDNESDAY

Next Wednesday is Ash Wednesday and the first day of Lent. On that morning ashes are blessed in all the Catholic churches, and are put on the forehead of those who go to receive them. Ashes as a sign of contrition date from a period long before the Christian era, and the use of blessed ashes is very old in the Catholic Church. The distribution of the ashes to the people on the first day of Lent can be traced back definitely for close on a thousand years. While they are being placed on the forehead, the priest says: "Remember, man, thou art dust, and unto dust thou shalt return."

AS YOU LIKE IT

With an astonishing lack of the reverential awe with which every one ordinarily views Shakespeare, the producers of "As You Like It," Twentieth Century-Fox release which opens at the Queen's Theatre to-day, will bring the play to the screen as Shakespeare intended it should be produced and the result is one of the screen's great achievements.

"As You Like It" is a bewitching, lusty, gaily farce, with the keynote of riotous hilarity and romance and excitement skillfully blended into the plot.

With Elizabeth Bergner starred as Rosalind, the crowded audience will know at her famous escapades.

MAGNIFICENT BRUTE

"The Magnificent Brute," a giant of a man, is torn between two blondes. That is, two at one time. The battle of the blondes for his affection starts at the Alhambra Theatre to-day. The story is taken from Owen Francis' "Big," which ran in Liberty Magazine.

Victor McLaglen, winner of the last Academy award for his outstanding screen performance, is the star of this Universal film, in which he is seen as "Big" Steve Andrews, a swaggering maker of steel.

In the steel mills, Big Steve finds the towering Bill Morgan, his bitter enemy, already installed as "top" workman. Their hatred flames anew when he defeats Morgan in a test of strength. The tension is increased when Big Steve takes Morgan's girl away from him and the revengeful Bill plots to ruin his rival by underhand means. Then begins the aforementioned struggle between the blondes for the possession of Steve. Binnie Barnes, as Della, scores the first victory. Jean Dixon, as Blossom, uses feminine strategy to gain the advantage. The climax pits Steve against Morgan in a stirring conflict, a battle of Titans.

William Hall portrays Morgan; Henry Armetta has a prominent role; Billy Burd is seen as an appealing youngster. Edward Norris and Selmer Jackson have important parts. The picture is directed by John G. Blystone.

HEARTS DIVIDED

Marlon Davies, in her latest cosmopolitan production, "Hearts Divided," a First National release with a romantic historical background, comes to the King's Theatre to-day.

The picture is said to have been produced on a lavish scale with beautiful sets and colourful settings. The scenes are laid largely in the historical Patterson mansion of Baltimore and its spacious grounds, but there are also sequences in Washington, an outlying race track, and in the palace of Emperor Napoleon of France.

Dick Powell, who has the leading masculine role, also sings songs specially written for the production by Harry Warren and Al Dubin. In one of which he is joined by Miss Davies. Other music is furnished in the form of spirituals sung by the famous Hall Johnson Choir, representing slaves in their quarters on the Patterson estate.

Several historical characters are seen in the film including Napoleon Bonaparte, brother of the emperor, President Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, James Monroe, John Marshall, Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr.

Other players in the cast include, Charles Ruggles, Claude Rains, Edward Everett Horton, Arthur Treacher, Henry Stevenson, Clara Blandick, John Larkin, Walter Kingford and Etienne Girardot. Frank Borzage directed.

lauded and applauded star, contributes her most brilliant screen performances in the leading role. Laurence Olivier, Henry Anley and Sophie Stewart are featured at the head of a cast of favourites, all of whom supply noteworthy performances.

Paul Czinner directed and produced "As You Like It."

"Doubles" At The Majestic

Patrons of the Majestic Theatre will be interested to learn that to-day and to-morrow the management are offering a double programme—two full length films—for the usual price of admission. This will be in the nature of an experiment but if it meets with the support it deserves, the double programmes will be a daily feature at this very popular theatre.

One improvement in the theatre that is worthy of special mention is that all the seats in the stalls have been replaced by more comfortable ones.

First Television In A Cinema

Broadcast From Roof Studio
Londoners of 30 years ago would have found the scene in the Dominion Theatre recently as fantastic as anything in the romances of H. G. Wells. At nine o'clock a film ended in a rapturous close-up; an announcer proclaimed the first public cinema demonstration of Baird "Super Screen" television; and trumpeters blew a fanfare.

At once the television screen—measuring 8 feet by 6 feet, but looking like a postage stamp after the cinema screen—became illuminated in the darkness of the theatre. The head and shoulders of a man appeared; he explained that the broadcast was being given from a studio high in the roof.

A second, later, was seen the head and shoulders of Mr. George Lansbury, M.P. Rain seemed to be falling as Mr. Lansbury made his brief speech—but the face was seen clearly enough.

Billy Bennett, addressing the audience in his familiar fashion, "Good evening, folks!" said that he was glad to assist in the "vivisection" test; and recited a burlesque ballad. Haver and Lee followed with their dialogue, Haver standing at the microphone on the stage, and Lee answering him from the television screen. The facial play here was particularly distinct.

Last of all, Mr. J. L. Baird said a few words of thanks, and the screen faded; 3,000 people who had watched this first programme in the first—and only—cinema to be fitted with a television screen applauded for a minute, then turned with some indifference to watch the "talkie" news reel.

WALKING DEAD

"The Walking Dead," a Warner Bros picture, said to be the strangest and most unusual mystery thriller ever screened, is at the Majestic Theatre to-day. Boris Karloff has the stellar role while the brilliant cast includes Ricardo Cortez, Edmund Gwenn, Margaret Churchill, Warren Hall, Barton MacLane and Henry O'Neill. The picture has as its central theme the bringing back to life of a man who has been electrocuted for murder, but whose innocence of the crime is proved immediately after his execution. The victim of a band of racketeers, who have framed him, the man who was dead walks as in a dream among the living, but with an uncanny instinct, seemingly supernatural, of ferreting out the men who had caused his death.

The theme is hair raising enough in itself, but the strange occult methods by which the "dead" man proceeds to avenge himself is calculated to freeze the blood and make the flesh quiver.

The process of bringing the man to life is shown in detail and is done along the line of scientific experiments conducted by eminent doctors in the past several years. The method in particular follows that of Dr. Robert Cornish, the Berkeley, Calif., scientist who claims to have revived a dead dog.

A duplicate of the lifting table he used as well as the electrical apparatus was specially constructed for the scene by expert technicians. A replica of the Lindbergh heart, a mechanical device that pulsates like the human organ, and which was used by Dr. Alexis Carrel, of the Rockefeller Institute and a Nobel prize winner, in his experiments, was also constructed by scientific experts.

While the picture is largely one of chills and thrills, it is relieved by comedy elements and a fascinating romance. It was directed by Michael Curtiz, who handled the famous mystery pictures, "Dr. X" and "The Wax Museum." The story is by Ewart Adamson, and Joseph Fields and was adapted for the screen by Adamson, Peter Milne, Robert Andrews and Lillian Hayward.

STAR FERRY CO. MEETING

Successful Year
Reported

FURTHER ADVANCE IN COAL PRICES

The 39th ordinary yearly meeting of the Star Ferry Company, Limited, was held in the Board Room of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., Ltd., yesterday morning. The Hon. Mr. J. Paterson (Chairman) presided and others present were the Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, Mr. M. T. Johnson, Mr. A. H. Compton and Mr. T. B. Wilson (Directors) and Mr. F. H. Crapnell (Secretary).

CHAIRMAN'S SPEECH

The Chairman said:—
Traffic earnings for the year 1936, show an increase of $22,633 while the increase in net profit over the previous year was $4,318. The higher price of coal and cost of repairs to the ferry piers account for the increase in expenditure. Here, I may mention that there has been a further advance in coal prices this year.

You will notice that the Balance Sheet has been revised and is now drawn up in line with modern accountancy and I think gives a clearer view of the state of the Company's financial position.

When the annual repairs to the piers were being carried out, the roofs over the landing stages were extended, with a view to protecting passengers as they embark and land during wet weather. Unfortunately it is not possible to bring these roofs out any further.

INTERIM DIVIDEND

In intimated at our last meeting that an interim dividend might be paid during the year, at the half year your Directors decided to distribute $2 per share in this manner, absorbing $160,000. After allowing for this payment and bringing in the $18,521.45 brought forward from 1935, there is a balance of $256,828 for distribution. It is now proposed to pay a final dividend of $3 per share, which will absorb $240,000, and carry forward $16,828.

For the year 1935 we were enabled to pay a dividend of $5.50 per share, which was fifty cents more than it is now proposed to distribute, by utilising the balance in the Equalisation of Dividend Fund Account. This account is now closed and we have the balance of the year's revenue only for appropriation.

The ferry service continues to run smoothly, and except to add my annual reminder to shareholders that our pier leases expire in 1949, there does not appear to be anything further that calls for comment. I, therefore, propose that the report and accounts as presented be adopted and passed.

OTHER BUSINESS

The adoption of the report was seconded by the Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell and carried unanimously. The Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson and Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell were re-elected Directors on the proposal of Mr. J. H. R. Hance, seconded by Mr. J. Ormiston.

On the proposal of Mr. J. D. Danby, seconded by Mr. G. B. S. Thomson, Mr. C. Bernard Brown A.C.A., was re-elected auditor.

Shareholders present were: Messrs. D. Mackenzie, J. D. Danby, E. Grant Smith, F. Schreiber, J. H. R. Hance, G. B. S. Thomson and J. Ormiston.

Opium Divan Keeper Fined

Charges of (a) the possession of eight maces of opium, (b) keeping an opium divan, and (c) the possession of 611 heroin pills were brought against Tang Mui, 40, at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday. Revenue Officer Stephens told the Court that he visited defendant's premises, No. 169, Temple Street on January 28 and found that the rear cubicle was being used as an opium divan. Defendant was fined a total sum of $300 or 19 weeks' imprisonment.

Thief In Barracks

For the theft of a package of lead and copper wire, Chan Yuk, 21, unemployed, was sentenced by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy to two months with hard labour and also to be sent back to the country. It was alleged that defendant stole the wire from Wellington Barracks. A. S. I. MacDonald, in charge of the case, informed his Worship that no one knew how defendant got into the barracks.

HEROIN PILL SEIZURE

Two Men Sent To Sessions

Three men, Chan Yuen, 22, Mak Hung, 34, Chiu Sing, 30, and a woman, Ling King, 18, appeared before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy on the charge of possession of 133,800 heroin pills.

Mr. M. J. Abbott, Assistant Crown Solicitor, appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. G. S. Hugh Jones represented the defendants. The woman was discharged as soon as Mr. Abbott informed his Worship that he would offer no evidence against her.

In outlining the case, Mr. Abbott said that on the morning of January 7, Senior Revenue Officer A. W. Grimmer and Mr. H. A. Taylor, Government Analyst, headed a party that raided No. 55, Caine Road, second floor.

As the door was not opened upon knocking it was broken in and the first defendant was found sleeping in a back room which was used as a heroin factory. The second defendant was in the servants' quarters with two choppers in his hands, while the third came in about five minutes after their arrival.

A drying cupboard was in the premises in which were 20 trays of pills.

Mr. Hugh Jones said that there was not enough evidence to convict the third defendant as he only came into the house after the party had arrived, and he was discharged. The other two were committed to stand their trial at the next Criminal Sessions.

EXTRADITION CASES

Two Before The Court

Two extradition cases came before Mr. W. Schofield yesterday when Tsui Chu Kung, and Tsui Cho, alias Tan Yau, alias Tsui Yau, alias Tsui Sing-sing appeared at the Central Magistracy.

The former is wanted by the Dutch East Indian authorities for embezzlement. He was represented by Mr. F. G. Nigel, of Messrs. Johnson, Stokes and Masters, and Chief Detective Inspector J. Murphy prosecuted.

A week's formal remand was granted in this case, and Mr. Nigel's request to see the warrants and extradition papers was also granted.

Tsui Cho is wanted by the Kwangtung authorities for an alleged murder on May 27, 1936, of Li Pak-yu, at Shan Lu Village.

Mr. Murphy's request for a week's formal remand was also granted in this case.

THEFT FROM K.C.R.

'Might Have Caused
Mishap'

Appearing before Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, Wong Nga, a 48-year-old unemployed, was charged with the larceny of one iron weight, the property of the Kowloon-Canton Railway.

Inspector Shannon said that defendant was searched at Tung On Street about 4 a.m. on February 4 by a constable and found the weight contained in a sack which the defendant was carrying.

Mr. R. S. Bevan, Permanent Way Inspector of the K. C. R., said that the weight was attached to a signal, and by removing it, the proper working of the signal was affected.

His Worship told defendant that by stealing this piece of weight he might have caused a serious traffic mishap. Defendant was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour.

A Persistent Offender

Saying that he had returned to the Colony to borrow some money from his friend, Ip Kwok-kuen, a returned banished, was sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment when he appeared before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday.

Defendant was deported from the Colony in July last year, and had returned to Hong Kong three times since his deportation.

MOTORISTS IN COURT

Parking Offences

Chiu Keung-wa, of No. 21, Yuk Sau Street, ground floor, was fined $5 by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday for the failure to report a collision between his car and car No. 3387 on Fadder Street at 1.10 p.m. Mr. S. Ng Quinn appeared for the defendant and said that the accident was such a minor one that defendant did not think he had to report it.

LADY DRIVER SUMMONED

Mr. A. W. Hodges appeared at the Central Magistracy yesterday in place of his wife, who was summoned for obstructing traffic on Chater Road on January 23.

Mr. Hodges said that a week previously his wife had parked in the same place because of the lack of parking space. Apparently, she was informed by a Chinese police sergeant that she could park at the spot.

His Worship only cautioned defendant.

CONNAUGHT ROAD CONGESTION

Another caution was given to Mr. W. Woodward, who appeared before Mr. W. Schofield for obstruction at Chater Road.

Mr. Woodward said that he understood that the parking problem in the Colony was a very difficult one, and suggested that it would be a better idea if motorists were given warning that no further parking was allowed there.

Serg. Youe informed his Worship that motorists could park their cars on Connaught Road but it seemed that drivers did not want to walk any further to their offices than they had to. He concluded that concession would be made of the after 5 p.m. parking and they would probably be withdrawn soon.

Telephone Pole Base Stolen

Two months with hard labour with $15 amends or one month extra was the sentence given by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday when Chan Tak-choi, 27, unemployed and of no fixed abode, appeared on a charge of stealing a telephone pole base.

Mr. A. Spary, overseer of the P. W. D., was in the Court, and said that defendant was seen breaking the base with large stone at the Electric Work Shop, Wanchai. The actual damage was $15, and the larceny happened in broad daylight between 12.30 and 1 p.m.

This could
prevented!

Strengthen your body against Feverish Diseases

The chance of catching malaria and other feverish diseases is far greater, if the power of resistance is lowered. Lack of minerals in the body usually causes this lowering. Tiredness, heart troubles, irritability and dizziness are signs that your power of resistance is below par.

Prevent serious trouble by taking Kalzana tablets regularly. Kalzana replenishes the mineral content of the body and blood cells in a perfectly natural way, strengthens the whole system, and so prevents serious infectious diseases, such as malaria, skin rashes, etc.

A grateful Kalzana user,
Mr. E. B., writes:

"I have suffered from very bad nervous headaches for 10 years and after having taken Kalzana I feel as fit as a fiddle."

THE MINERAL FOOD FOR BETTER HEALTH

Obtainable at all Chemists in tablet and powder form.

Everyman's Castle!

Mr. J. M. d'Almada Remedios applied for a cross-summons from Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday for Wong Hui against Mrs. Toledo and her son. Mr. Remedios said that the man was assaulted in his own home, and every man's home was his castle. His Worship granted the cross-summons and also granted bail of $25, in order for Wong to get his pay from the Royal Naval Dockyard where he is employed as a boiler maker.

Snatcher Caught

Ho Keung, 20, unemployed and of no fixed abode, who was remanded on the previous day for the snatching of a gold earring from Mrs. Butt, of 43, Kennedy Road, first floor, reappeared before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday. His remand was to see if he was fit for a thrashing and as he was found to be fit his Worship imposed a sentence of six months' hard labour in gaol with fifteen strokes of the cane.

With an astonishing lack of the reverential awe with which every one ordinarily views Shakespeare, the producers of "As You Like It," Twentieth Century-Fox release which opens at the Queen's Theatre to-day, will bring the play to the screen as Shakespeare intended it should be produced and the result is one of the screen's great achievements. "As You Like It" is a bawling, lusty, gaily farce, with the keynote of riotous hilarity and romance and excitement, skillfully blended into the plot. With Elizabeth Bergner starred as Rosalind, the crowded audience will know at her hilarious escapades. Elizabeth Bergner, to-day's most

"The Magnificent Brute," a giant of a man, is torn between two blondes. That is, two at one time. The battle of the blondes for his affection starts at the Alhambra Theatre to-day. The story is taken from Owen Francis' "Big," which ran in Liberty Magazine. Victor McLaglen, winner of the last Academy award for his outstanding screen performance, is the star of this Universal film, in which he is seen as "Big" Steve Andrews, a swaggering maker of steel. In the steel mills, Big Steve finds the towering Bill Morgan, his bitterest enemy, already installed as "top" workman. Their hatred flames anew when he defeats Morgan in a test of strength. The tension is increased when Big Steve takes Morgan's girl away from him and the revengeful Bill plots to ruin his rival by underhand means. Then begins the aforementioned struggle between the blondes for the possession of Steve. Blinnie Barnes, as Della, scores the first victory. Jean Dixon, as Blossom, uses feminine strategy to gain the advantage. The climax pits Steve against Morgan in a stirring conflict, a battle of Titans. William Hall portrays Morgan; Henry Armetta has a prominent role; Billy Burrud is seen as an appealing youngster. Edward Norris and Selmer Jackson have important parts. The picture is directed by John G. Blystone.

HEARTS DIVIDED

Morton Davies, in her latest cosmopolitan production, "Hearts Divided," a First National release with a romantic historical background, comes to the King's Theatre to-day. The picture is said to have been produced on a lavish scale with beautiful sets and colourful settings. The scenes are laid largely in the historical Patterson mansion of Baltimore and its spacious grounds, but there are also sequences in Washington, an outlying race track, and in the palace of Emperor Napoleon of France. Dick Powell, who has the leading masculine role, also sings songs specially written for the production, by Harry Warren and Al Dubin, in one of which he is joined by Miss Davies. Other music is furnished in the form of spirituals, sung by the famous Hall Johnson Choir, representing slaves in their quarters on the Patterson estate. Several historical characters are seen in the film, including Napoleon, Bonaparte Cambreres, second consul of France, Jerome Bonaparte, brother of the emperor, President Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, James Monroe, John Marshall, Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr. Other players in the cast include: Charles Ruggles, Claude Rains, Edward Everett Horton, Arthur Treacher, Henry Stevenson, Clara Blandick, John Larkin, Walter Kingsford and Etienne Girardot. Frank Borzage directed.

lauded and applauded star, contributes her most brilliant screen performances in the leading role. Laurence Olivier, Henry Armetta and Sophie Stewart are featured at the head of a cast of favourites, all of whom supply noteworthy performances. Paul Czinner directed and produced "As You Like It."

"Doubles" At The Majestic

Patrons of the Majestic Theatre will be interested to learn that to-day and to-morrow the management are offering a double programme—two full-length films—for the usual price of admission. This will be in the nature of an experiment, but if it meets with the support it deserves, the double programmes will be a daily feature at this very popular theatre. One improvement in the theatre that is worthy of special mention is that all the seats in the stalls have been replaced by more comfortable ones.

First Television In A Cinema

Broadcast From Roof Studio

Londoners of 30 years ago would have found the scene in the Dominion Theatre, reputedly as fantastic as anything in the romances of H. G. Wells. At nine o'clock a film ended in a rapturous close-up; an announcer proclaimed the first public cinema demonstration of Baird "Super-Screen" television; and trumpeters blew a fanfare. At once the television screen—measuring 8 feet by 6 feet, but looking like a postage stamp after the cinema screen—became illuminated in the darkness of the theatre. The head and shoulders of a man appeared; he explained that the broadcast was being given from a studio high in the roof. A second later were seen the head and shoulders of Mr. George Lansbury, M.P. Rahn seemed to be falling as Mr. Lansbury made his brief speech—but the face was seen clearly enough. Billy Bennett, addressing the audience in his familiar fashion, "Good evening, folks!" said that he was glad to assist in the "vivisection" test; and recited a burlesque ballad. Haver and Lee followed with their dialogue. Haver standing at the microphone on the stage, and Lee answering him from the television screen. The facial play here was particularly distinct. Last of all, Mr. J. L. Baird said a few words of thanks, and the screen faded; 3,000 people who had watched this first programme in the first—and only—cinema to be fitted with a television screen applauded for a minute, then turned with some indifference to watch the "talkie" news reel.

WALKING DEAD

"The Walking Dead," a Warner Bros. picture, said to be the strangest and most unusual mystery thriller ever screened, is at the Majestic Theatre to-day. Boris Karloff has the stellar role while the brilliant cast includes Ricardo Cortez, Edmund Gwenn, Margaretta Churchill, Warren Hull, Barton MacLane and Henry O'Neill. The picture has as its central theme the bringing back to life of a man who has been electrocuted for murder, but whose innocence of the crime is proved immediately after his execution. The victim of a band of racketeers, who have framed him, the man who was dead walks as in a dream among the living, but with an uncanny instinct, seemingly supernatural, of ferreting out the men, who had caused his death. The theme is hair raising enough in itself, but the strange occult methods by which the "dead" man proceeds to avenge himself is calculated to freeze the blood and make the flesh quiver. The process of bringing the man to life is shown in detail, and is done along the line of scientific experiments conducted by eminent doctors in the past several years. The method in particular, follows that of Dr. Robert Cornish, of Berkeley, Calif., scientist who claims to have revived a dead dog. A duplicate of the sitting table he used as well as the electrical apparatus was specially constructed for the scene by expert technicians. A replica of the Lindbergh heart, a mechanical device that pulsates like the human organ, and which was used by Dr. Alexis Carrel, of the Rockefeller Institute and a Nobel prize winner, in his experiments, was also constructed by scientific experts. While the picture is largely one of chills and thrills, it is relieved by comedy elements and a fascinating romance. It was directed by Michael Curtiz, who handled the famous mystery pictures, "Dr. X" and "The Wax Museum." The story is by Ewart Adamson, and Joseph Fields and was adapted for the screen by Adamson, Peter Milne, Robert Andrews and Lilla Hayward.

Telephone Company Employee Passes

Inspector With 27 Years Service

After a lengthy period of faithful service with the Hong Kong Telephone Company Limited, Tai Sum, employed as Inspector, died at the Tung Wah Eastern Hospital on Thursday.

In the presence of a great host of mourners numbering several hundreds, the funeral took place yesterday. There were several cars laden with myriad-hued wreaths.

The cortege proceeded through the city to the Chinese Cemetery at Pokfulam where the burial took place.

The deceased had served with the Telephone Company for 27 years.

Boxing Day Traffic Mishap

Charge Against Driver

Further evidence of the unfortunate traffic mishap which occurred on Boxing Day last near Tai Po where Mrs. Tong Man-shau was the victim of the tragedy was heard at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday afternoon when the driver, Pun So, who was alleged to have caused the accident was alternatively charged with driving without due care and caution, and driving in a manner dangerous to the public.

The Assistant Attorney general, Mr. E. H. Williams and Inspector A. W. Smith were for the prosecution, while Mr. O. F. C. Marton appeared on behalf of defendant. Mr. F. Loseby held a watching brief for the relatives of the deceased.

Dr. Y. S. Kwan, who was directly following the two cars when they were involved in the accident, said that the hotel car, which was driven by the defendant, was under the driver's control when it had just overtaken the Morris Minor (Mrs. Cheng's car) Mrs. Cheng, the driver of the Morris Minor which fell over the bridge, then gave evidence.

She said that her car was going at a speed of about 20 to 25 m.p.h., and was keeping to the right side, leaving about two feet, on the left edge of the road.

She also said that she did not hear the hotel car sound the horn, and added she did not realise that there was a car from behind. The hotel car suddenly bumped against her car and as a result her car toppled over the bridge, and she remained unconscious and was confined to hospital for two days.

Mrs. Cheng further stated that this was the first traffic accident she had since she possessed a qualified driving licence in 1931. The case was adjourned till 2.30 p.m. on February 9.

Chinese Chamber Against Daylight Saving

MONTHLY MEETING HELD YESTERDAY

At the 12th monthly committee meeting of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, held at the Chamber's Board Room, Connaught Road Central, yesterday afternoon, it was decided to contribute a sum of $100 to the Lun Yee Overseas Chinese Bureau of Communications for construction purposes.

The Chairman, Mr. Li Sing-kui, presided, and was supported by the Vice-Chairman, Mr. Wong Mow-lum and the Secretary, Mr. Tso Hok-yue. Other members present included Messrs. Lau King-ling, Lau Yuk-wan, Chiu Chiu-fan, Lai Yam-shuen, Ko Chung-nam, Chow Sing-chi, Li Tai-kung, Tang Chi-cheong, Au Chak-sum, Yee Chuek-sang, Cheung Lan-chow, Yung Koon-man and others.

After the accounts had been passed in the usual manner, the Secretary told the meeting that during last month, the Chamber had received many letters from the different firms and manufacturers in Germany, India, Hungary, Cuba and Java asking for introductions to reliable local Chinese agents and influential representatives for their products. He added that replies to the above mentioned requests had already been sent.

"DAYLIGHT SAVING"

In response to a letter sent to the Chamber from the four Chinese Unofficial members of the Council, asking for an opinion concerning the proposal made by His Excellency the Governor on December 2 last, that "Daylight Saving" in this Colony be introduced, it was decided that it was not advisable to change the Hong Kong Standard Time, owing to the inconvenience that would be caused to the factories working hours, and the time table of trains, steamships etc. between Hong Kong and Canton. It was decided to submit the Chamber's opinion to the Chinese representatives on the Council for transmission to the Government.

Helena May Concert

Music-lovers must have enjoyed the delightful concert organised and arranged by Mrs. R. Sanger at the Helena May Institute last evening. Songs and instrumental numbers were charmingly interspersed to make up the programme, and Mrs. Sanger herself was responsible for two lovely groups of songs in which her sweet and mellow voice was heard to advantage.

Miss Prue Lewis (well-known to local radio-fans) made a welcome appearance and played "Air on the G. String" and "Bourree" by Bach, with great taste and considerable skill. She is an accomplished young lady.

Mrs. Nell Mathieson is always popular with Hong Kong audiences, and her sincere and artistic interpretation of three delightful songs by Elgar were much appreciated. Her singing of "Where Corals Lie" being most lovely, while her beautifully clear diction enabled every word to be heard.

More than a word of praise is due to Mr. Gerald Sydney for his splendid accompaniments to both singers. They were very sympathetic and a great feature of this concert. His solos (and in particular the variations by Mozart) were very well received. Mrs. Griggs accompanied the violinist with her usual perfection and gave excellent support throughout.

Altogether a most interesting and enjoyable concert.

Possession Of Forged Notes

Fok Po-hang, 22, and Wong Nga, 32, were committed to stand their trial at the next Criminal Sessions by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday when they appeared on the charge of possession of forged banknotes. Acting-Sub-Inspector W. N. Darkin, in prosecuting, said that on January 21, at 6 p.m., a Chinese approached two District watchmen and informed them that he suspected two men of possessing forged money, and pointed them out.

Accordingly, the watchmen apprehended the men one on each side of Lockhart Road, and when they were searched the forged money was found on them.

In the witness box Fok said that he was a school teacher at the Hang Chi Vernacular School of Eze Pai Lau, Canton, and that he only arrived in the Colony on the day of his arrest.

Wong's statement from the dock was that he had a friend in the Chinese army at Canton who re-

Diocesan Girls' School Concert

Pupils of the Diocesan Girls' School gave a very impressive concert at the St. Andrew's Church Hall to a large and appreciative audience yesterday afternoon.

It is understood that the proceeds are to be given to the Ministering Children's League.

The programme consisted of various items acted by the girls of all forms. But the most appreciable of all was the two scenes from the Blue Bird. The actresses who participated gave a most touching interpretation of mother's love toward the children in a simple yet effective dialogue. Miss V. Gellman, who played the part of Mummy Tyi (the maternal love) gave a splendid performance. Miss A. Cowan and Miss P. Dodd who played Tyiyl and Mytyl also deserve credit for the success of the play.

Two Scenes from the Blue Bird: 1. The Hall of Happiness. 2. Mummy Tyi's Cottage. Those who took part in the play were: Light: P. Jeffreys; Great Joys: M. Lay, M. Churn, S. Waung, B. Lim; Happinesses: A. Ho, S. Bruce, H. Bockler, I. Hicks, J. Hall, P. Crofton, L. Tai, K. Stiff, M. Lawson, C. Ho.

Will Russia
Rule The Waves?

"A Russian scientist has discovered a method of taking away the waves."—Item from a Scientific Journal.

This is, we believe, the first occasion on record that Russia has, since the advent of the Soviets, contributed in any practical way to the smoothness of things physical, mental or moral. Therefore, we deem it worthy of more than passing notice.

This discovery is not, like so many other "plans" from Russia, calculated to upset everything. For instance, the Russian scientist is quite content, for the present at least, to allow the seven seas to remain in their allotted positions. He is content to develop his wave-smoothing plan as a commencement; possibly he will tackle the more concrete job of making the surface of the earth like a billiard table after successfully completing his liquid task.

This invention, from what a mere layman reading a scientific journal can understand, hinges on the employment of pipes, and it sounds somewhat expensive even for a country with a printing-press currency. If it should succeed in such localised areas as the Black and Caspian seas, there is no saying where it will end. It might conceivably be extended to the Pacific zone, and, that, of course, would afford just cause for a certain nation in the Far East lodging a pretty stiff protest with the offending country which had harboured such a destructive scientist.

Because, this invention is certainly destructive, in the literary sense, as everyone who turns an honest cent or two by writing will agree.

What about our fine boast, also, that Britannia rules the waves? If this invention comes to anything, then, as Britishers, even Britishers in Hong Kong, we are going to be made very ridiculous when the band strikes up and we start to sing (more or less) that stirring old refrain.

Not only will Britishers object, but writers—and we include poets, novelists, special article perpetrators and just common reporters—will unite in a mighty will against this invention which will make the picturesque prosaic. We must, in justice to ourselves and our livelihood, stand firm for a moving, and at times definitely boisterous sea.

There can be no excuse for this invention, not even on utilitarian grounds. Do fishermen want a perpetual millpond sea? Fish are caught faster than we can eat, or at least, buy them; and "there are more and better fish in the sea than ever came out of it." Posterity will need fish, for fish are good for the brain, and it seems that posterity will require all the brains it can muster.

But the most awful aspect of this invention is, as we have already hinted, the literary one. If waves become rarities involving long and arduous voyages of discovery, then all those reference books of "immortal passages" will have to be re-cast and re-indexed. Indeed, quite a few of us will be obliged to endeavour to accomplish a little thinking for ourselves.

Herr von Ribbentrop, German Ambassador to London, departed from Court etiquette by giving the Nazi salute to the King when presenting his credentials. The incident is reported on page 1.

ADMIRAL'S CALL AT VALENCIA

London, Feb. 4. A question was asked in the House of Commons to-day regarding the recent visit of Admiral Sir Roger Backhouse to Valencia.

Replying for the Admiralty, Lord Stanley said the visit was made on the occasion of the Home Fleet taking over the duties off the coast of Spain previously undertaken by the Mediterranean Fleet. During the visit, at the suggestion of His Majesty's Charge d'Affaires, the Commander-in-Chief paid unofficial calls on the Prime Minister and the Minister of Marine, and these calls were returned informally.

No political significance was attached to the visit, which the Commander-in-Chief would naturally make in order to acquaint himself with the position at first hand and to discuss matters personally with Mr. Ogilvie Forbes. Similar visits have since been paid to Barcelona and Palma.—British Wireless.

YARDS BUSY ON NAVAL BUILDING

London, Feb. 4. The tonnage of vessels under construction for the Admiralty in private yards in Scotland amounts to 65,562. The vessels include three cruisers, fourteen destroyers and two submarines.

Yards in the North-West of England, according to information given in a Parliamentary answer, are building 89,313 tons, including one capital ship, two aircraft carriers and eight submarines. The Tyne-side and north-eastern yards are executing Admiralty orders totalling 110,805 tons, including one capital ship, one aircraft carrier, four cruisers and eight destroyers.

One cruiser of about 10,000 tons is building at Belfast, while four destroyers and other light vessels are under construction at Southampton, Cowes and other yards in the South.—British Wireless.

Mr. Eden To Go On Vacation

London, Feb. 4. The British Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, will proceed to the south of France for a two weeks' vacation shortly. It is stated officially. During his absence, Lord Halifax will be in charge of Foreign Affairs.—Transocean News Service.

Some of us know full well the extreme difficulty experienced in appreciating Dickens at Christmas-time when melting in the heat of an Australian summer where we only get the snow and sleet in deliriums. Well, take away our waves, and—what have you? Just think what it would mean to English verse and baritone song! In fact, we like this proposition even a little less than we did that of the fellow who once submitted an elaborate scheme for knocking the wrinkles out of tripe with a cork hammer.

Let's stand firm for a moving ocean, cream-crested mountainous seas and so on and so forth. We recommend that if this Russian scientist must "do his stuff," then he should take out patent rights for inland lakes, such as the one at Geneva, for if a little smoothness is needed anywhere it surely is there.

PRETTY WEDDINGS

Two Solemnised Yesterday

DAVIES-RUSSELL: SODEN-PEGG

At 3.30 yesterday afternoon two weddings were solemnised, one at the Hong Kong Union Church, where Mr. G. Davies, of the Hong Kong Police, was married to Miss M. D. G. Russell, and the other at St. Joseph's Church, where Miss C. E. Pegg became the bride of Mr. F. J. Soden.

UNION CHURCH
CEREMONY

At the Union Church, Kennedy Road, the wedding took place between Miss Margaret Downie Green Russell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, of "Argyle," 11, Bay View Mansions, Causeway Bay, and Mr. Glyndwr Davies, of the Hong Kong Police Force. The Rev. K. Mackenzie Dow officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her father, made a charming picture in a dress of ivory chantilly lace over pale pink satin. She carried a bouquet of white roses and heather. Her veil and orange blossoms were loaned by her aunt, Mrs. James Parker, of Dumbarton, Scotland.

Miss Ellen Russell was in attendance as chief bridesmaid and other bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Young and Miss Netta McWilliams. Miss Russell's dress was of hyacinth tulle with hat and shoes to match and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Young and Miss McWilliams were attired in a pink cloque Kate Greenaway frocks with silver shoes and carried bouquets of multi-coloured sweetpeas.

The duties of best man were discharged by Mr. George Willerton, also of the Hong Kong Police.

The service was choral and the hymns, "O God of Bethel" and "O Perfect Love" were sung.

Subsequently a reception was held at "Courtlands," Kennedy Road, where a large gathering of friends toasted the health of the happy couple.

The honeymoon is to be spent in Europe, the bride's going-away costume being a turquoise ensemble with brown hat, shoes, bag and gloves.

AT ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH

The marriage between Mr. Francis Joseph Soden and Miss Catherine Beatrice Pegg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edgar Pegg, of No. 8, The Peak, took place at the St. Joseph's Church, Garden Road.

The Rev. Father Ryan, S.J., officiated.

Mr. Pegg gave his daughter away in marriage. The bride was attired in a pretty cream moire picture frock with a plain veil held in place with bunches of orange blossom. Her bouquet was a shower of white roses and sweetpeas.

The bridesmaid, Miss Jean Dailziel, wore a pink silk dress with gold trimmings and shoes. She carried a shower bouquet of pink sweetpeas and roses.

The bride's mother attended in a grey lace dress and coat and Navy blue hat. Her bouquet was of larkspur.

The best man was Mr. John Llewellyn Tate.

The Rev. Father Riganti was at the organ and played bridal music which he had composed specially for the occasion.

A reception was later held at No. 8, The Peak, where many friends gathered to offer their felicitations to the newly-wedded couple.

The honeymoon is to be spent in Indo-China, Mrs. Soden's going-away costume being a brown silk coat and frock with hat, gloves, bag, shoes and stockings, to match, and a spray of flowers to tone.

War Commissar Gains In Popularity

New Campaign Of Terror By Secret Societies

London, February 5. The revolt in Soviet Russia against Joseph Stalin is, according to reports in the Polish press in Warsaw, again in evidence. When Voroshilov, the War Commissar, who very energetically opposed Stalin's decree of a "purge in the Red Army," marched through the streets at the head of some troops, he was enthusiastically cheered, whilst the population took no notice of Stalin.

The "Daily Mirror" reports from Warsaw, that very serious divergencies of opinion have arisen between Stalin and Voroshilov. It is also stated that the popularity of Voroshilov is daily increasing.

The journal furthermore reports that secret revolutionary societies have started a campaign of terror by setting fire to Government buildings and factories. ## Newspaper Plane Disaster

Max Pemberton's Son Among The Victims

London, Feb. 4. Following a two-days' organised search, in which nineteen aeroplanes participated, the newspaper aeroplane which was surveying a new air route from Glasgow to Liverpool was discovered, burnt out, by a shepherd in a field in a lonely part of Kirkcubrightshire.

The four occupants of the plane were found dead inside the framework of the machine.

The victims were the pilot and three members of the reporting staff of the "Daily Express," including Mr. Harold Pemberton, a son of Max Pemberton, the well-known novelist. The machine had been chartered by the newspaper named for the aerial survey.

Earlier in the day, a plane had observed a black spot with what appeared to be an aeroplane by its side, but a search of the vicinity revealed nothing. Later, the search was continued by shepherds possessing a wide knowledge of the moorlands, with the result that the burnt-out plane was found.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

ANOTHER CRASH

New York, Feb. 4. The crest of the Ohio River flood, which it was feared would inundate the town of Cairo, Illinois, and which swept to within a few inches of the top of its hastily augmented defences, swung into the Mississippi River to-day and started its long roll towards the Gulf of Mexico.

The river at Cairo stood at 59.82 feet for twelve hours, and then at 9 o'clock in the morning began to recede by a fraction of an inch.

Cairo's greatly strengthened flood walls having hitherto withstood their terrific ordeal, the immediate battle-ground of the flood-fighters now shifts to New Madrid, Missouri.—Reuter.

Soon after dawn, the attacking forces made a final effort to damage the Singapore defences by sending over planes from H.M.S. Hermes.—Reuter.

Week-End Sport

The sports programme for this afternoon promises to be an exceptionally fine one, for apart from the fact that the selected interport footballers will be on view, there is the Second Division League cricket match between the Kowloon Cricket Club and the Police Recreation Club which is more or less in the form of the finale of Junior Cricket this season, for it will be on the result of this game that the destination of the shield will be decided.

For those who are keen on hockey, the final ladies' interport trial ought to prove excellent entertainment and though the composition of the team is almost a foregone conclusion, it will be interesting to watch the form of the many candidates for interport honours.

Apart from the above, there will be the yachting at the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club at North Point while, in view of the fact that the annual tennis championships are fast drawing near, the tennis courts in the clubs whose grounds are not otherwise engaged, will be fully occupied by those preparing for the tournament. For to-morrow there will be the usual Sunday football matches and though hiking has not yet become an "organised sport" in the Colony, many private parties have been planned for the week-end.

Cricket

BY L.B.W.

Included in the cricket programme for this afternoon are only two Second Division games but one of them is of such importance that a large crowd is sure to attend it. I refer to the clash between the Kowloon Cricket Club and the Police Recreation Club, at King's Park, and though the Police will not be winning out of turn if they carry the day, I am of the opinion that the home team, what with such players as W.C. Hung, Freddie Zimmerman, G.C. Burnett and Tom Madar in the side, will prove much too good for the guardians of the peace. If the K.C.C. wins, they will have their name inscribed in the shield for the first time since 1921-22, but in view of the fact that they are such a "small" club, a Police victory would be more popular.

Without meaning to belittle the efforts of the other Police bowlers, much will depend on C. Pope if the Police are going to win. On his day, Pope is about the best bowler in the Second Division and if B. G. Baker gives him the required support from "the other end," there is no reason why they should not dismiss the K.C.C. for a low enough total to force a win.

The other League match is that between the University and the Army "A" and though the undergraduates will have the advantage of playing on their own ground, the visitors should have no difficulty in winning.

CLUB V INDIANS

Of the many friendly matches, the most interesting should be that between the Hong Kong Cricket Club and the Indian Recreation Club. These teams met at Sookunpoo last week when the Indians upset all expectations by winning comfortably but I doubt whether they will be able to repeat the performance to-day though they will be strengthened by the return of A. S. Sumfard to the team while I hear there is also a distinct possibility of A. H. Madar turning out again. These two players had been kept out of the side for three weeks owing to injuries sustained in earlier matches.

The Craigengower Cricket Club will be at home to the Civil Service and a very good game should result. The Civil Service appear to me to be a five-men team, for if J.E. Richardson, F. Baker, A.L. Perry, D. McLeish and W. H. Colledge do not come off, they generally get into a mess. Craigengower are in a somewhat similar position and it is a curious coincidence that two of their best bowlers, U.M. Omar and A.K. Ismail, were formerly of the Indian Recreation Club though the former did start his cricket with the C.C.C. Another player in their first eleven who was formerly in the I.R.C. syndicate is A.R.H. Esmail but he has not been too consistent lately.

At Sookunpoo the Army take on the Navy but the latter will not be at full strength owing to the fact that the ships are away at Singapore. Despite this, however, a good game should be seen.

And now I come to the friendly matches in the second division. Last week the Indians beat the H.K.C.C. in their League encounter on the Club ground and they meet to-day in a friendly at Sookunpoo. I hear the Indians are very short and up till Thursday evening they were still looking for five more to make up the side. I think the Club will win to-day. Playing away, the Craigengower juniors should have the better of their meeting with the C.C.C. seconds but anything might happen.

Hockey

(BY R.H.B.)

I begin my notes this week with felicitations. First of all I heartily congratulate the Y.M.C.A. Ladies on winning the Caer Clark Cup for the first time since their participation in the tournament. In eight matches they won six, drew two and never suffered defeat, a record of which they may well feel proud. Secondly, congratulations to Miss Sybil Dalziel, the interporter, whose marriage to Mr. J. Gardner took place during the week. She was a member of the all-conquering Y. Ladies team.

Southern Trophy

The position of runners-up for the Southern Trophy in the Caer Clark competition is still open and will be decided when the Hong Kong Ladies H.C. meet the Saints Ladies in their last encounter. The Saints have nine points and, therefore, have a chance to secure the cup by one point as the H.K. Ladies at present have ten points. The Saints have been runners-up in the competition on no less than four previous occasions. The match should prove most interesting and I am sure that Miss Phyllis Gittins, leader of the Saints, and her team mates will go all out in their endeavour to win.

Miss M. Smith

To date, Miss Marie Smith, of the Y. Ladies, heads the list of goal scorers in the Caer Clark Cup competition with 11 goals. Mrs. M. Read, also of the "Y," being second with 7. Mrs. Donald (H. K. Ladies) and Miss P. Gittins, of the Saints, follow with six each. Mrs. D.L. Phosphet (H.K.), Mrs. Burton (C.B.A.) and Mr. Sybil Gardner (Y. Ladies) have a tally of three goals each.

To-day's Interport Trial

The ladies are holding an interport trial match on the U.S.R.C. ground at 3 p.m. this afternoon when the Probables meet the Possibles. To me the most surprising thing is that Mrs. Burton, the C.B.A. sharp shooter, is not included. She should be tried at inside right to Mrs. Donald. The Probables forward line, Miss Olive Dalziel, Miss F. Marsh, Mrs. Donald, Miss Marie Smith and Miss M. Westcott, looks very much like the Interport attack. The presence of Miss B. Pope at right back for the Probables and Miss Jessie Wong, of the Saints, as pivot, gives every indication that the latter will be the most probable final choice. Miss E. M. Gray and Miss Joan Smalley are partnered in the Possibles defence but to my mind this move has been made, to test them against the probable attack. Mrs. L. Silva, who has strong claims for inclusion in the Interport intermediate line, Miss M. McCaw, of the C.B.S. "A," and Miss Olive Peters (C.B.A.) will form the Possibles half-back line with Mrs. P.M. Jarrop and Miss F. Wong (playing one half each). Miss Maureen Booker, Miss Helen Bockler, Miss P. Gittins and Miss Doris Hunt in the attack. Miss Iris Woolley (right-half) and Miss K. Glover (left-half) will be in support of Miss J. Wong in the Probables defence.

Mrs. Stephens

The Probables goalkeeper is Mrs. Lunson while Mrs. J.L. Stephens, of the Y. Ladies who did exceptionally well against the H.K. Ladies last Saturday at the Valley, is between the sticks for the Possibles. Mrs. Stephens should be very seriously considered for the important position of custodian in the Interport side. Mrs. R. Rose will share a trial with Mrs. Stephens, each playing one half.

Shanghai Ladies

The Shanghai Ladies are expected to arrive here on Thursday, February 11, and the Interport match will be played on the H.K. F.C. ground (as in 1935) at 3.15 p.m. on Friday, February 12. Shanghai are said to be bringing with them a very strong team, including five ex-Interporters, and so Hong Kong ladies will have to look to their laurels if they are to retain custody of the White Shield for the third year in succession.

Soccer

(BY JAY MARTIN)

Next Thursday, February 11, Hong Kong will pit its strength against the Shanghai travelling side when the Interport clash takes place on the Navy ground. We are practically on the eve of the big game and already the local team has suffered two handicaps which, perhaps, might affect the general make-up of the side. I refer to A. V. Gosano and Campbell. Gosano, I understand, has strained his knee while Campbell has "pulled" a muscle. However, it is hoped that both of these players will be fit again when the day of the Interport arrives.

Football fans are asking one another, "Who will win?" Without any prejudice to the local side, I feel quite safe in conjecturing that despite all the claims of local sports writers, Shanghai is going to break the "hoodoo" which has dogged them during past Interport games. Hong Kong is going to find itself up against a stronger proposition than local soccer fans believe.

The result of the practice game between the Hong Kong Interport side and the Seaforth Highlanders was a rather disappointing one, in view of the fact that although it was slated for a practice match for the Hong Kong representatives, only seven out of the eleven players participated. On top of this, it revealed some flaws which, perhaps, the Selection Committee might find it not too late to correct. Possibly the absence of the other players affected the play generally but it reflected no credit on the side. Stevens, Tong Kwan, Talbot and Beltrao figured prominently, but, unfortunately, none of these will represent the Colony.

Misconduct On Field

Misconduct, on the football field is not uncommon in local football and it would appear that such cases appear more frequently in junior league matches. Only recently four footballers appeared before the Emergency committee of the Hong Kong Football Association to answer the charges against them. All this was the result of incidents which occurred in a single week-end of football.

Goddard of the R. A. M. C., who was sent off in the match against the Chinese Police on January 24, was cautioned. Chiu Kam-foo, of Kowloon Chinese, was suspended for six weeks for misconduct during the Kowloon Chinese v. Athletic match on January 23. Wong Shui-kee, of the Athletic, also an offender in the same match, was suspended for two and a half months. Ip Ki-chee, another Athletic player in this game, was also sent off, and was suspended for two and a half months.

Week-end Games

The main fixture in this week-end's list of games was undoubtedly the encounter between Soun China "A" and the Royal Ulster Rifles at Caroline Hill to-morrow. This clash between last year's champions and this year's leaders should be well worth any body's while to watch. Providing that true form will be displayed by both teams, the Rifles should get the edge over their rivals by a close margin.

Another match in which play should be evenly distributed is the clash between Chinese Athletic and Recreio. The latter have only sporadically flashed good form during the last few recent games but have shown enough to make themselves dangerous. To-day's game at Caroline Hill will, no doubt, see Recreio field their best team and, this being the case, I rather favour them for a win.

St. Joseph's should, literally, find their match with Eastern at Happy Valley to-day a "holiday" one. The latter have been playing their utmost best at every League fixture, but they have been mostly unfortunate in the results of their games.

The Club v. South China "B" encounter at the former's ground to-day should prove another attraction for this week-end's fixtures. Although the Club appear the weaker team on paper I should not be surprised if they will give South China "B" the battle of their lives. However, the Club belongs to

A keen tussle is fully anticipated. Let us hope that the clerk of the weather will be more considerate this time than in 1935 when the ladies battled in a field of mud.

A Great Pity

It seems a great pity that the H.K. Men's Hockey Association is unable to guarantee $300 to enable the Shanghai men's team to pay us a visit during the Chinese New Year holidays. Such a visit would indeed do much to foster the growing interest and keenness that is being yearly displayed in hockey in the Far East.

Famous Cricketer's Son

Rodney Noble Aged 15 Shows Promise

Playing in the New South Wales Cricket Association Schoolboy Competition in Sydney is a son of M. A. Noble, the former Australian Test Captain.

The son Rodney is 15 years of age, and like his Dad he is an all-rounder. He is a big, solidly-built lad and playing for Randwick against Marrickville recently he had success with both the bat and the ball. He took 2 for 40 and scored 21 runs in the match. He bats left-hand and bowls right-hand, and is a good fieldman.

that category of teams that makes it difficult to forecast the result of their games.

Two other easy games are on schedule to-day. The first is the clash between Kowloon and Fusiliers at Kowloon, the second being the Seaforths v. Police match. Both Army teams should have no difficulty in winning.

The only other First Division encounter to-morrow is the match between Navy and Kowloon Chinese. While this game might not be as attractive as the others this week-end, it should prove to be fairly even as both teams appear to possess the same strength. The Navy, fortunately, has been strengthened by one or two new players this week and this puts their team in a favourable position.

Following are the week-end fixtures:—

First Division
Chinese Athletic v. Club de Recreio, Caroline Hill, 4.15 p.m.

TO GET RID OF STOMACH TROUBLES

An English Doctor writes:—

"I find that 'Bisurated' Magnesia taken after most of my meals is the only thing that keeps me free from pain and discomfort, and I take it regularly. I often prescribe it for my patients, and have had very good results."
(Signed) Dr. H. G. M.A., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.

THE English doctor is the most conservative medical man in the world, and when he not only recommends, but personally uses a remedy there can be no more convincing proof of its efficacy. This doctor is but one of many who constantly advise the use of 'Bisurated' Magnesia in all cases of indigestion. Most stomach trouble is caused by acidity, and the reason why 'Bisurated' Magnesia gives quick relief is that it instantly neutralises excess acid and soothes, heals and strengthens the inflamed stomach lining. Nothing could be simpler, safer or surer. If you suffer with indigestion or stomach disorder of any kind put your faith in European science and make an end of your troubles by taking 'Bisurated' Magnesia after eating or whenever pain is felt.

ASTON VILLA SPEND MORE MONEY

Starling Goes To Villa Park

Aston Villa recently obtained the transfer of Ronald Starling, the Sheffield Wednesday inside-forward. It is understood that the transfer fee was in the neighbourhood of £8,000.

One of the cleverest inside-forwards in the country, Starling, a native of Durham, played for Hull City before going to Newcastle. In 1932 he went to Sheffield Wednesday and played for England against Scotland the following year.

In 1935 he captained the Sheffield Wednesday team which won the F.A. Cup.

Besides parting with Starling, Sheffield Wednesday also transferred James McCambridge, the Irish International inside-forward, to Hartlepool United.

McCambridge has had a roving career. He played for Larne and Ballymena before joining Everton in the spring of 1931. The same year he went to Cardiff City, and

ALEKHINE WINS TOURNAMENT

EXCITING LAST ROUND

The International Tournament at Hastings ended in a victory for Dr. Alekhine, who scored 8 points out of nine games played. Reuben Fine was second with 7½.

Both masters drew their games recently. Dr. Alekhine thus retaining the advantage gained by his defeat of Fine in the last round but one.

The third prize was won by Elisakases, while Dr. Vidmar and Feinig tied for the fourth.

Alekhine was drawn against Koltanowski in the last round and the game was drawn on the forty-fourth move, after Alekhine had survived an anxious period.

Fine, in his game with Vidmar, refused an offer of a draw on the twentieth move, as while certain in any case of second place, he needed a win to secure a tie for first prize. After repeated efforts by the American master to lure Vidmar into dangerous adventures, the draw was, however, agreed to after 35 moves.

The final scores were: Dr. Alekhine, 8; Reuben Fine, 7½; E. Elisakases, 5½; Dr. Vidmar and M. Feinig, 4½; T. H. Tylor and W. Winter, 3½; G. Koltanowski, 3; Miss Menchik and Sir George Thomas, 2½. Dr. Alekhine's total was made up of seven wins and two drawn games, against Koltanowski and Elisakases, while Fine also won seven games, but drew with Vidmar and lost to Alekhine.

Vines In Hospital

Collapse After Third Defeat By Perry

Ellsworth Vines, the American professional lawn tennis star, who was on January 10, beaten for the third time in four days by Perry, the former amateur champion, now turned professional, is in hospital with a high temperature, writes a Chicago correspondent. He is suffering from influenza and tonsillitis.

Vines collapsed in his dressing-room after being beaten 6-0, 6-2, 6-3, by Perry at the Stadium in Chicago. He had a temperature. It is now learnt, while playing.

There were 13,000 spectators, and they paid $2,250, of which the British player receives approximately one-third.

In Cleveland Perry defeated Vines by 13-11 and 6-3 in a match which was shortened because Vines was feeling unwell. Perry won the first match at Madison Square Garden, New York, by three sets to one.

It has been decided to cancel the match at Detroit, but it is hoped that Vines will be able to play Perry at Pittsburgh. The doctor at the hospital, however, expresses the opinion that he will have to spend four or five days in bed.

since then has assisted Bristol Rovers and Exeter City.

Wednesday obtained his signature last June. He has played for Ireland against England, Scotland and Wales.

COMPLIMENT FOR HENRY COTTON

Brother Professionals Book Lessons

Henry Cotton has received a pleasing compliment from some of his brother golf professionals on taking over his new appointment at Ashridge, Hertfordshire.

Several of them have booked lessons with him as a part of their preparation for the coming match-play season.

Cotton's first big task at Ashridge, however, will be the coaching of the Cambridge University team that is to meet Oxford in March.

His intensive work on the Cambridge side as a whole, however, will not begin until the last week of the month. The team will then go down to Ashridge in relays until the end of the first week in February.

AN INNOVATION

One of the innovations Cotton has made at Ashridge is the loaning of a bag of balls. Players can hire any reasonable quantity of sound balls for practice instead of playing as they usually do with old or cut balls.

Speaking on the proposed limitation of the number of clubs that golfers may carry, Cotton said he thought any such restriction would not be in the best interests of the game.

"I consider I can play with as few clubs as anybody," he said, "but even if I carry as many as eighteen I often find I have not got just the right club in the bag for a certain shot."

The practice huts for all-weather play, which have been erected under Cotton's supervision, are proving very popular, and Ashridge, which has many new members, will now be able to turn out one of the strongest club sides in the Home Counties.

A correspondent in a weekly paper is told that a register marriage by licence costs £2 12s, all told. And about the same if nobody is told.

THE KING'S TOAST

No Slight If Drunk In Water

There will be no variation of the rule laid down by King George V. as to drinking the King's health in water.

A reply to that effect has been sent from Buckingham Palace to Hackney Local Veto Union and London Temperance Association.

The secretary had written stating that King Edward VII, King George V., and King Edward VIII. had intimated that the royal toast might be honoured with equal acceptance in water or other non-alcoholic beverage, and expressing the hope that the King would intimate similarly.

CHINESE CRITIC OF TRAFFIC LIGHTS

THREE LAMPS ARE "OLD-FASHIONED"

A young Chinese professor who is visiting London cannot understand why three lamps are used on traffic signals. He says they are old-fashioned.

He is Prof. C. H. Chang, Professor of Civil Engineering in National Tsing Hua University, Peking. At present he is halfway through a 12 months' tour of the world's educational centres.

From London, which he is visiting for the first time, he will go to Manchester, Birmingham, Sheffield, Oxford, Paris, Berlin, Geneva and Rome.

"We have some street signalling lamps like yours," he said "but they are giving way to the single searchlight, with an arrangement for changing colours. They are neater and give much better visibility."

"Why have three lamps when only one is wanted at a time? I was surprised to see the old-fashioned type all over London."

STREET "LIKE SHANGHAI"

Prof. Chang is proud of his university, which he says, is one of the best equipped in the world. It began its work in 1909, when the first batch of students was sent to America, but it was not until 1923 that it was recognized by the Government as a national university.

It now has four colleges, comprising 16 departments, with 1320 students, including 100 women.

Photographs which Prof. Chang carries show the complete equipment in the engineering college.

The aeronautical department has its own flying ground, two machines and gliders. The laboratory is equipped with a wind tunnel for testing models, and next to the hangar is a rigging shop.

In the mechanical engineering department gas masks are made by students as part of their training.

When Prof. Chang is homesick in London he walks along Tottenham Court-road.

"I imagine—if the sun shines—I am back in Shanghai," he said. "It is just like some of the streets in the British Concession there."

NAVIGATION BY THE STARS

To Be Used By R.A.F.
Bombers

NECESSITATED BY LONG RANGE

Navigation by the stars, familiar to mariners, and often used by Royal Air Force flying-boat crews, will be needed by some of the new overland bombers because of their great range.

The necessary observations and calculations are simplified because of work for the Air Ministry which has already been far advanced.

Flying over great distances, in weather which hides landmarks and makes "dead reckoning" unreliable R.A.F. aircraft usually depend upon guidance by directional wireless, with the help of ground stations giving them their positions on request. This process, however, would probably be impossible in war time, for wireless communications would be jammed.

The speed of modern aircraft is so great that accurate navigation is necessary to avoid wide divergence from routes, with consequent waste of time and fuel and added risks.

The air navigation sextant was experimented with even before the war, and was brought to some degree of efficiency during the war. It is used in airships, and has frequently served the purpose of transoceanic flights. It is necessary to use an artificial horizon and "bubble" sextant, and errors due to altitude can be corrected.

Bombers with a range of 2,000 miles and of high speed have now to be provided for, and the training of Air Force personnel, other than that of the flying boats, has become necessary.

Astronomical navigation in aircraft has become reasonably accurate, on many occasions the crews of flying boats have made errors of less than five miles. The automatic pilot, with which the new long-range bombers are equipped, makes the machine a sufficiently steady "platform" for accurate bombing and also for the use of the sextant.

ARMY TO LOSE
THE DUKE OF GLOUCESTER

CAREER GIVEN UP TO HELP THE KING

The Duke of Gloucester is relinquishing his Army career to assist the King by undertaking various official functions and public engagements.

His Royal Highness was promoted to the rank of major-general on Jan. 1.

When King Edward VIII left the Throne, the Duke, as a major in the 10th Hussars, was taking a course at the Staff College, Camberley, and has left the College and has ceased his work as an active serving officer.

In the normal course of events he would have been made a lieutenant-colonel, probably at the beginning of next year. It was his hope to be given command of the 10th Hussars.

REGRET IN THE ARMY
The announcement will be received with great regret by all ranks in the Army, who had rejoiced to see the Royal Prince making it his career.

The Duke of Gloucester served with his regiment continuously while it was quartered at home, and on its departure abroad he was attached to the 11th Hussars at Salisbury Plain—one of the first

Head Of Queen's College Leaving

Mr. F. J. de Rome Proceeding On Long Leave

Amongst the many residents leaving for Home this morning by the P. and O. s.s. Rawalpindi is Mr. F. J. de Rome, the popular headmaster of Queen's College, who is proceeding to England on long leave.

Mr. de Rome, who took over the headmastership of Queen's College when Mr. A. H. Crook went away on retirement, was for many years one of the leading cricketers of the Civil Service Cricket Club and for many seasons was their opening batsman. He had also been figuring in Interport cricket contests between Hong Kong and Shanghai.

In an interview with the "Daily Press," Mr. de Rome said that he will be away for the usual period of nine months and while in England he will probably visit Mr. B. Tanner and Mr. A. H. Crook, both former headmasters of the College.

During Mr. de Rome's absence, the headmastership of Queen's College will be taken over by Mr. W. Lucas Handyside, who has been connected with the College for many years.

Brilliant Concert By Seaforths

began to strut their Scottish "stuff" and their listeners fairly raved over their spectacular entry through the aisle of the theatre's main floor. Not only Scottish blood boiled, but that of their neighbours, too, in whose esteem Highland music must have gone several per cent. higher. Four kilts ended this second part of the programme with the Highland fling and it was well that it ended for the strain was already too much for the excited audience.

The Seaforths made their exit after a few selected pieces by their jazz band, in the course of which they very cleverly "peppered" up the opera.

Time and again their band leader was forced to take the bow of an audience that refused to be silenced, and it was only by dint of plunging the theatre into darkness and screening the film "Hearts Divided" that the Seaforths were allowed to retire. Among those who attended last night's gala premiere were His Excellency the Governor, Sir Andrew Caldecott, and Lady Caldecott, Hon. Sir Shouson Chow, Hon. Dr. T'so Seen-wan, and Captain W. J. R. Cragg.

Small Pox Epidemic

Wreaths were sent by the following:

Mme. Vermeulen, Commandant Delalande, Emile Ott, Freda and Mme. Corra, M. G. Marchand, M. L. Rondan, M. Foulard, Mr. Schroeder, Etablissements Schneider, Cie Francals des Phosphate de l'Océanie, Banque de l'Indo Chine, Management of the Repulse Bay Hotel.

"SETTLEMENT MENACE"

Shanghai, February 2.—Dr. J. H. Jordan, Commissioner of Public Health, has reported to the Council that small pox is now in epidemic form within the International Settlement. (Including outlying municipal roads), states the "North-China Daily News." Epidemicity is defined by the local Port Health Authorities as the occurrence of an average daily number of three new cases for one week.

The situation is not considered alarming, but the Health Department is anxious that preventive measures—vaccination—be not relaxed on the part of the public. The Department's vaccination campaign is being carried on with unabated vigour.

Only three non-Chinese cases of small pox were notified to the Settlement authorities last week. One of them was a Japanese case. Two foreigners died of the disease during the week. Twenty-five Chinese cases were reported, with eleven deaths.

OSMUND BEATS OPPONENT

A Senior Championship match of the Open Billiards Tournament was played last night at the Civil Service Cricket Club. A. J. Osmund, the Champion defeated Sin Hon-yat by 500 to 182. The winner made a break of 154 and a final one of 111. The game only lasted an hour and twenty minutes.

Dysentery Scourge Report

attention was paid to the water supply and samples were submitted for examination both to the Government Bacteriologist and the Government Analyst. The reports from both these authorities were satisfactory.

FLIES

Referring to flies, the report states that the Dairy Farm Company place the blame for the flies on the Pokfulam Village on the opposite side of the road—a collection of huts or small houses occupied by pig keepers and market gardeners. Acting is being taken by the Sanitary Department to bring an abatement of the nuisance.

CARRIERS

The report also deals with carriers and states that altogether specimens from 113 employees were examined. On a subsequent examination seven of those who had given a positive result proved negative. One who formerly had been engaged in bottling and who had non-agglutinable organisms was still positive for such organisms. He however showed negative on a third examination.

PASTEURISATION

The report adds that the pasteurisation process carried out at the Dairy Farm is highly satisfactory.

In a further appendix the report, dealing with the case for pasteurisation of milk, states that compulsory pasteurisation of all locally produced milk is recommended.

The case for notification of dysentery is also fully dealt with and concludes:—"As notification of dysentery can do no harm and may do good especially during times of epidemic, notification of dysentery may be recommended."

Dr. Kung To Be Premier

Successor To Gen. Chiang

Nanking, Feb. 5.

Finance Minister H. H. Kung was stated to have accepted informally the presidency of the Executive Yuan in place of General Chiang Kai-shek, who insists on relinquishing this post as an apology for the Sianfu outbreak in which he was held a prisoner for 15 days.

Dr. Kung is also Vice-Minister of the Executive Yuan and was in an acting capacity during General Chiang's detention in Sianfu. General Chiang specially recommended Dr. Kung as his successor on account of his acceptability to all sides.

Other candidates were Mr. T. V. Soong, Dr. Wang Chung-hui and Mr. Wang Ching-wei. The selection of Dr. Kung is believed to be final, and formal appointment will be made by the third plenary session of the Kuomintang Central Executive Committee on Monday, February 15.

The presidency of the Executive Yuan, equivalent to the premiership in European countries, is the most important post in the National Government.
